TO: Comptroller
BUILDING Central	ROOM NO. 209
REMARKS: Re Hamilton's memo which is attached: A.1. - I don't think there is anything in the Jackson Committee's report which would cause us to restrict operations so as to reduce our budget. A.2. - OK, except our right to top the reserve must be established at the time the project is approved. I agree, however, that it may not actually be necessary when we see how our obligations are working out near the end of the year. (over) spell out in great detail our clandestine operations.

Please prepare a letter to Mr. Macy
for my signature.
